

COURSE SYLLABUS AND OUTLINE: DRINKING COFFEE ELSEWHERE
COLLECTION OF 8 SHORT STORIES- WRITTEN BY ZZ PACKER

Teacher: L. Rosenstein

Summer Remote Teaching

Email: lrosens@schools.nyc.gov

Period 1

Course Description: ELA is a yearlong required course that will enable students to become skilled readers of a wide variety of literature, including short stories, poetry, and prose. Students are expected to read and respond to a variety of literature, independently, in group discussion and in writing. All facets of language arts- listening, speaking, reading, writing will be covered. The study of language in use- grammar, mechanics, sentence structure, and usage will be incorporated in this course as well. Enrichment activities will also be tackled.

Course Objectives: The student will demonstrate the ability to:

- respond to a text by applying personal experiences and critical analysis
- comprehend language by applying the conventions of Standard English in writing and speaking
- evaluate the organization, content, and language use of texts.

Course Materials: Ipads, Computers, Smart Phones

Course Text: Literature: Drinking Coffee Elsewhere

Website: Common Lit for paired assignments

Grading:

Classwork: might include all work begun and /or completed in a Google Meet, discussions, group activities

Homework: might include all work completed outside of Google meet, including readings and assignments

Grading Scale- Pass NX-incomplete course work

Teachers' Expectations:

- show respect to your teacher and classmates
- follow the rules and procedures
- be prepared to learn daily
- participate in activities