

P.S. 035 Manhattan High School

Course Code: FSS66QQB

Syllabus for: SPANISH 6

Teacher Name: Mrs. Dubizh

Year and Term: Summer, 2019

Learning Standards:

Standard 1: Communication Skills

Students will be able to use a language other than English for communication.

Standard 2: Cultural Understanding

Students will develop cross-cultural skills and understandings.

Course Description:

The second half of this advanced class will expose students to varied literary works in Spanish by authors in Spain, Latin America and the United States. Students will also become familiar with several literary forms: poetry, prose, theater and the short story, among others. As they become more fluent in their reading they will be introduced to the historical, social and political background during which these great literary works were written

Unit Map:

We will focus on reading for understanding and analysis as well as work on the ability to express concepts and ideas fluidly and fluently. Collaborative activities will include the creation of an original theatrical script and/or short movie, debates between students on a student generated topic and mock interviews with famous Spanish authors.

Some of the more advanced topics that will be covered include:

- Reflexive verbs
- Commands
- The present and past perfect tenses
- The subjunctive tenses

Course Materials:

Texts:

McGraw Hill Education– El español para nosotros, 2014

Heinle Cengage Learning – Album: Cuentos del mundo hispánico, 2005

By Joy Renjilian-Burgy and Rebecca M. Valette

Assessment Program:

EMCParadigm- En el mundo hispánico, 2001

- Graded Exercises
- Vocabulary Quizzes
- Chapter Tests
- In-Class Graded Essays

Grading Policy:

1. Homework	20%
2. Tests	20%
3. Quizzes	20%
4. Classwork (Participation)	20%
5. Final Oral Presentation	20%

* If you are absent you are responsible for all homework and classwork that you missed.

* Speak in Spanish as much as possible!!!